

ASLIA

Australian Sign Language Interpreters' Association

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Brisbane - August 27th - 29th

Interpreters and...:

Exploring settings, interactions and best practice in interpreting

The ASLIA National Conference is the largest annual event of its type for sign language interpreters within the Australasia and Oceania region. The conference is also open to interpreters and translators from other language communities, service providers, consumers of interpreting services, and interpreting/translation students.

We are honoured to announce that Dr Lorraine Leeson will be the keynote presenter for ANC 2010. Dr Leeson is the Director of the Centre for Deaf Studies, at the Trinity College Dublin, Ireland.

visit our website for more information and register to receive updates

www.asliaconference.org.au

The Australian Sign Language Interpreters' Association (ASLIA) is a non-profit body, and the national peak organisation representing the needs and interests of Auslan/English Interpreters and Deaf (Relay) Interpreters in Australia.

email: info@asliaconference.org.au